Whereas, the parties to this Consent Confidentiality Order (the “Parties”), have stipulated that certain discovery material is and should be treated as confidential, and have agreed to the terms of this Order, accordingly, it is this 25th day of July, 2018, ORDERED:

1. Scope. All documents produced in the course of discovery, all responses to discovery request, responses to subpoenas, and all deposition testimony and deposition exhibits, and any other materials which may be subject to discovery (hereinafter collectively “documents”) shall be subject to this Order as set forth below.

2. Form and Timing of Designation. Confidential documents shall be so designated by placing or affixing the word “CONFIDENTIAL” on the document in a manner which will not interfere with the legibility of the document and which will permit complete removal of the Confidential designation. Documents shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL prior to, or contemporaneously with, the production or disclosure of the documents. The Parties shall have the right to designate documents that have already been produced in this case as CONFIDENTIAL. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents without prior designation as CONFIDENTIAL shall not be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of the right to designate documents as confidential as otherwise allowed by this Order.

3. Documents Which May be Designated Confidential. Any party may designate documents as CONFIDENTIAL but only after review of the documents by an attorney¹ who has, in good faith, determined that the documents contain information protected from disclosure by statute, privileged sensitive personal information, trade secrets, or confidential research, development, or commercial information. The certification shall be made concurrently with the disclosure of the documents, using the form attached hereto at Attachment A which shall be executed subject to the standards of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Information or documents which are available in the public sector may not be designated as confidential.

4. Production of Electronically Stored Information. Pursuant to Rule 34(b)(2)(E) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Parties may specify the form or forms in which electronically stored information (“ESI”) is to be produced.

5. Depositions. Portions of depositions may be deemed confidential only if designated as such when the deposition is taken or within seven business days after receipt of the transcript. Such designation must be specific as to the portions to be protected.

6. Protection of Confidential Material.

a. General Protections. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL under this Order shall not be used or disclosed by the Parties or counsel for the Parties or any other persons identified below (§ 6.b.) for any purposes whatsoever other than preparing for and conducting the litigation in which the documents were disclosed (including any appeal of that litigation).

b. Limited Third Party Disclosures. The Parties and counsel for the Parties shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any documents designated CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Order to any other person or entity except as set forth in subparagraphs (1)-(5) below, and then only after the person to whom disclosure is to be made has executed an acknowledgment (in the form set forth at Attachment B hereto), that he or she has read and understands the terms of this Order and is bound by it. Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may be allowed to review documents which have been designated CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to this Order:

- (1) Counsel and employees of counsel for the Parties who have responsibility for the preparation and trial of the lawsuit;
- (2) Parties and employees of a party to this Order but only to the extent counsel shall certify that the specifically named individual part or employee's assistance is necessary to conduct of the litigation in which the information is disclosed²;
- (3) Court reporters engaged for depositions and those persons, if any, specifically engaged for the limited purpose of making photocopies of documents;
- (4) Consultants, investigators, or experts (hereinafter referred to collectively as "experts") employed by the Parties or counsel for the Parties to assist in the preparation and trial of the lawsuit; and

² At or prior to the time such party or employee completes his or her acknowledgment of review of this Order and agreement to be bound by it (Attachment B hereto), counsel shall complete a certification in the form shown at Attachment C hereto. Counsel shall retain the certification together with the form signed by the party or employee.

(5) Other persons only upon consent of the producing party or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as are agreed to or ordered.

(6) Before disclosing stamped confidential documents to any person listed in subparagraphs 6.b(1) – 6.b(5) who is a customer or competitor (including employees or consultants of either) of the party that is so designated on the document, the party wishing to make such disclosure shall give at least 15 days advance notice in writing to the counsel or entity who designated such information as confidential, stating the names and addresses of the person(s) to whom the disclosure will be made, identifying with particularity the documents to be disclosed, and stating the purposes of such disclosure. If, within the 15 day period, a motion is filed objecting to the proposed disclosure, the disclosure shall not be made unless and until the Court has denied such motion. The Court will deny the motion unless the objecting party shows good cause why the proposed disclosure should not be permitted.

- i. As used in this paragraph 6.b(6), the term “customer” means any direct purchaser of Intex-brand products.
- ii. As used in this paragraph 6.n(6), the term “competitor” means any manufacturer or seller of products like Intex-brand products, including above-ground pools of any type, pool pumps, filters, and other pool supplies, outdoor toys and children’s products, air mattresses and other inflatable furniture, and any seller of retail goods to customers.

c. Control of Documents. Counsel for the Parties shall take reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized disclosure of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to the terms of this Order. Counsel shall maintain a record of those persons, including employees of counsel, who have reviewed or been given access to the documents along with the originals of the forms signed by those persons acknowledging their obligations under this Order.

d. Copies. All copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as “copies”), of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL under this Order or any portion of such a document, shall be immediately affixed with the designation “CONFIDENTIAL” if the word does not already appear on the copy. All such copies shall be afforded the full protection of this Order.

7. Jurisdiction. Each person executing this Confidentiality Agreement submits to the jurisdiction of this Court for the purposes of enforcement of this Agreement, either prior to or following the completion of this action. Jurisdiction of this action is to be retained by this Court after final determination for purposes of enabling any party or persons affected by this Agreement to apply to the Court at any time for such direction or further decree as may be appropriate for the construction or enforcement of this Agreement or for such additional relief as may become appropriate.

8. Filing of Confidential Materials. In the event a party seeks to file any material that is subject to protection under this Order with the Court, that party shall take appropriate action to insure that the documents receive proper protection from public disclosure including: (1) filing a redacted document with the consent of the party who designated the document as CONFIDENTIAL; (2) where appropriate (e.g., in relation to discovery and evidentiary motions), submitting the documents solely for in camera review; or (3) where the preceding measures are not adequate, seeking permission to file the document under seal pursuant to the procedural steps set forth in Local Civil Rule 5.03, DSC, or such other rule or procedure as may apply in the relevant jurisdiction. Absent extraordinary circumstances making prior consultation impractical or inappropriate, the party seeking to submit the document to the Court shall first consult with counsel for the party who designated the document as CONFIDENTIAL to determine if some measure less restrictive than filing the document under seal may serve to provide adequate protection. This duty exists irrespective of the duty to consult on the underlying motion. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a prior directive to the Clerk of Court to allow any document to be filed under seal. The Parties understand that documents may be filed under seal only with the permission of the Court after proper motion pursuant to Local Civil Rule 5.03.

9. Greater Protection of Specific Documents. No party may withhold information from discovery on the ground that it requires protection greater than that afforded by this Order unless the party moves for an Order providing such special protection.

10. Challenges to Designation as Confidential. Any CONFIDENTIAL designation is subject to challenge. The following procedures shall apply to any such challenge.

- a. The burden of proving the necessity of a CONFIDENTIAL designation remains with the party asserting the confidentiality.
- b. A party who contends that documents designated CONFIDENTIAL are not entitled to confidential treatment shall give written notice to the party who affixed the designation of the specific basis for the challenge. The party who so designated the documents shall have fifteen (15) days from service of the written notice to determine if the dispute can be resolved without judicial intervention and, if not, to move for an Order confirming the Confidential designation.

c. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of documents as confidential, all material previously designated CONFIDENTIAL shall continue to be treated as subject to full protections of this Order until one of the following occurs:

(1) the party who claims that the documents are confidential withdraws such designation in writing;

(2) the party who claims that the documents are confidential fails to move timely for an Order designating the documents as confidential as set forth in paragraph 9.b. above; or

(3) the Court rules that the documents should no longer be designated as confidential information.

d. Challenges to the confidentiality of documents may be made at any time and are not waived by the failure to raise the challenge at the time of initial disclosure or designation.

11. Treatment of Inadvertent or Unintentional Production of Privileged Documents. Any party that produces materials that the producing party claims are protected by the attorney/client privilege, work product doctrine, or other privilege, doctrine, or right recognized under South Carolina or other applicable law, may request the return of those materials by promptly notifying the recipient(s) of the produced documents. The recipient shall then promptly gather and return to the producing party or destroy all copies of the privileged materials and cease all use of the privileged materials until the claim is resolved. The producing party must list and describe the privileged materials on a privilege log in a manner that will permit the other party to assess the claim of privilege. The producing party must preserve the claimed privileged materials until the claim is resolved. Any production of such privileged materials shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a party's claim of privilege, either as to the specific information disclosed or as to any other information relating thereto or on the same or related subject matter that the party was designated as privileged.

12. Protections Extended to Third Parties' Confidential Information. The Parties agree to extend the provisions of this Order to documents produced in this action by third parties, so long as the third party designates the documents CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with Paragraph 3 of this Order.

13. Treatment on Conclusion of Litigation.

a. Order Remains in Effect. All provisions of this Order restricting the use of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of the litigation unless otherwise agreed or ordered.

b. Return of CONFIDENTIAL Documents. Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of litigation, including conclusion of any appeal, all documents treated as confidential under this Order, including copies as defined above (§ 7.d.) shall be returned to the producing party unless: (1) the document has been entered as evidence or filed (unless introduced or filed under seal); (2) the Parties stipulate to destruction in lieu of return; or (3) as to documents containing the notations, summations, or other mental impressions of the receiving party, that party elects destruction. Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy documents, counsel may retain attorney work product including an index which refers or relates to information designated CONFIDENTIAL so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim substantial portions of the text of confidential documents. This work product continues to be Confidential under the terms of this Order. An attorney may use his or her work product in a subsequent litigation provided that its use does not disclose the confidential documents.

14. Order Subject to Modification. This Order shall be subject to modification on motion of any party or any other person who may show an adequate interest in the matter to intervene for purposes of addressing the scope and terms of this Order. The Order shall not, however, be modified until the Parties shall have been given notice and an opportunity to be heard on the proposed modification.

15. No Judicial Determination. This Order is entered based on the representations and agreements of the Parties and for the purpose of facilitating discovery. Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial determination that any specific document or item of information designated as CONFIDENTIAL by counsel is subject to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise until such time as a document-specific ruling shall have been made.

16. Persons Bound. This Order shall take effect when entered and shall be binding upon: (1) counsel who signed below and their respective law firms; and (2) their respective clients.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
